The class of 2009 dedicates this year's Harold to...

Teresa Pina Romero

Sra. Romero has taught with our class since we were in second grade at North Street School. Since then she has been with us from elementary and now in our last years of high school. She is a teacher who can easily relate to her students and bring humor into the classroom, creating a fun environment to learn. Not only is she a great teacher, she truly cares about her students. Sra. Romero has and always will have a great bond with our class.

Dear Sra. Romero,
Thank you for everything
you've done for our class.

"Mil de gracias to the class of 2009 for dedicating this years yearbook to me. I am truly honored. It is hard to believe that you were my first class when I started teaching 10 years ago. Over the years, I have had the privilege of watching you grow into fine young men and women. Thank you for helping me become the teacher I am today. I am who I am because of you. Congratulations and best of luck in whatever life brings you.

You will always have a special place in my heart."

-Sra. Teresa Pina Romero AKA La Tora

You have greatly helped us along our journey here

In Loving Memory of...

Emily Mailman

We Thought Of You Today

We thought of you today,
But that is nothing new.
We thought of you yesterday
And will tomorrow, too.
We think of you in silence
And make no outward show.
For what it meant to lose you
Only those who love you know.
Remembering you is easy,
We do it everyday.
It's the heartache of losing you
That will never go away.

Love, The class of 2009

Dear Emily,

The Class of 2009 has a hole in it since you left. We remember you always but now as graduation approaches, more than ever. You will always be with us, in our hearts and our memories.

"There is no doubt that Emily will be remembered as having been part of our class. However don't just remember her for this, learn something from her presence with us. She taught us how to live life, to be optimistic, to always wear a smile, and to view the world and each other without a screen of prejudice or doubt but with love and compassion; to enjoy every minute. Remember Emily Mailman for this."

Shoot for the Stars

Anyone can give up, it's the easiest thing in the world to do. But to hold it together when everyone else would understand if you fell apart, that's true strength. Live your life for you and love the life you live, you only have one chance so make it worth while. Dream as big as you can and reach for the stars.

"Only as high as I reach can I grow, only as far as I seek can I go, only as deep as I look can I see, only as much as I dream can I be."

David Balboni

Dear David,

It is hard for us to believe that we will not be sitting on the bleachers watching you play soccer, basketball or baseball for WLHS again the years have gone by so quickly. It has been one of the true joys of our life to see you grow and mature into the fine young man you have become. Thank you for all the great memories; you have made it a pleasure to be your parents. Your hard work, determined effort, quick wit and wonderful sense of humor are evident in everything you have accomplished, whether it was in the classroom or playing sports. You are a good friend and teammate with a caring and compassionate spirit. Wherever life's journey takes you, these qualities will serve you well. Remember that we love you and will always be here on the sidelines cheering you on.

Love,
Dad, Mom and Lauren

Brian

Brian,

I am so proud of you. You are everything a mother could want in a son. You are a kind, considerate and responsible young man who will be successful in anything you choose to do in life.

Congratulations on your graduation.

I love you!

Love,

Mom

Brain,

It seems like just yesterday you were a little kid—and we are so proud of the young man you have become! You are funny, smart, and talented.

We know that you have a lifetime of success and happiness ahead of you. Your family is always behind you 100%.

Love,

Auntie, Uncle Michael,
Connor & Ryley

Brian,

Congratulations on graduating. I am so proud of you. I really can't believe you are not my baby brother any more. I've watched you grow into a responsible caring person. You will do great in everything you put your mind to.

I love you always,

Tracey

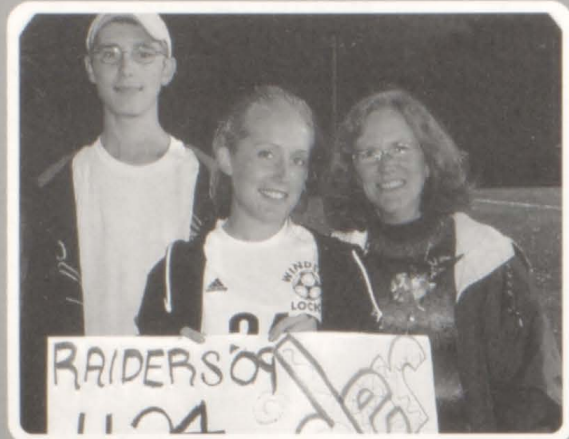

Congratulations Brian!

I am so very proud of you! You have always been my "quiet" grand-child and it has been a joy to me to watch you grow and become the thoughtful caring young man you are. I know that whatever you decide to do in life, you will do it well. You are a bright light in my life and I know that Poppy would be so proud of you.

Love,

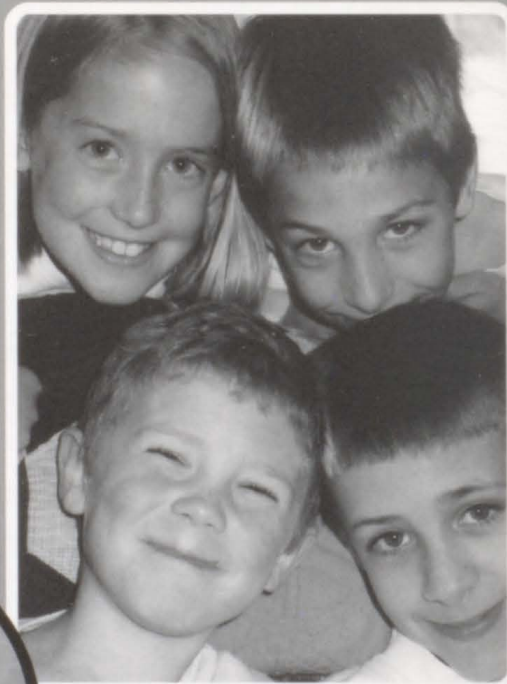

Grandma

My Dear Kristen,

*My wish for you
is that this life becomes all that you want it to your dreams stay big, your worries stay small you never have to carry more than you can hold
and while you're out there gettin' where you're gettin' to
I hope you know
somebody loves you
and wants the same things too
yeah, this is my wish*

I can't believe how time has flown by. It seems like only yesterday you were my tiny premature baby girl. So tiny, people were afraid to hold you because they thought you might break. But you didn't break. You excelled at everything you'd do. You always put everything you have into all that you do - even your friendships. By the way, your friends are pretty awesome too! I am SO proud of you. We've had some pretty tough times, but some great memories like apple picking, going to the beach and our vacations to the cottage. I can't believe the time is here for you to graduate High School and leave. I will miss you more than you can imagine. In my heart I know you will be fine, even if you don't believe me because of the tears in my eyes. They are tears of joy and pride. You are a strong young woman now, and ready to take on life and succeed.

I love you,
Mom :)

Last but not least of my three beautiful daughters. I am so proud of you. You have the most awesome personality, you are so loving and sweet, such a cuddle bug! I love your attitude, you are always so happy and full of adventure. And of course your sense of humor rocks! I am going to miss you so much. Remember to book your classes so you can get that 20 minute power nap that you've never given up since you were a little girl. You are such a strong person and I have no doubt that you will achieve whatever goals you set for yourself! Dream big Baby Girl!

Love, Mom

Congratulations! You are the best sister and friend that I could ever ask for. I'm so glad that we've gotten even closer over the years, and I look forward to the new memories we'll make. I wish you luck in college, I know you'll do great. Hopefully someday we can go to school together.

Love You!!! - Megan

My very first memories of you as a baby were how you always woke up happy! You were my little Irish rose who would send her daddy off to work with a smile! What a wonderful gift you are. Your laughter and wit have filled our house with joy and happiness. Although you were the baby of the family, I always depended on you and you never let me down. Even as a little girl you were always strong and confident, never afraid of any challenge. On the soccer field or the dance floor you have always shined So I know you will be a great success in college and everything you do in life. You are my shining star!

Love you, Dad

Dear Dennis,

To our last Raider....last but certainly not the least!

Eighteen years ago we were so blessed and have been every day since. What a wonderful journey

it's been Dennis. So many moments... since that first day of school to this, your graduation day. We know how hard you've worked for all that you've achieved and are so very proud of you. We can't wait to see where your next journey takes you!

Thank you Dennis for being such a loving son and brother.

All Our Love,

Mom & Dad

Jookhi Butt

Munni,

When your father and I first held you, we felt like the whole universe had just squeezed into our arms. Before you were born, we had so many beautiful visions of you, but none of them were even a quarter as beautiful as you turned out to be. Raising you was one of the most wonderful aspects of life. We still remember holding your training wheels in our hands and now we look out and see you behind the wheels of your own car. You have grown up so fast! We will never be able to find enough words to thank God Almighty for blessing us with such a beautiful, kindhearted, and intelligent daughter. You are not only such a successful young woman, but you've left good footsteps for your brother as well. We are SO proud of you... We love you and we'll always be here for you.

CONGRATULATIONS!!!

Endless Love, Mama and Papa

We blinked our eyes and our precious little girl is graduating High School. You have grown into such a beautiful young woman who continues to make us so proud each and every single day of our lives. You have given us so much love and joy for the last 17 years. We know we have to let you go to start the next chapter of your life, but what will we do without you!

The kindness you show towards others, your infectious smile, and your unselfish heart has made you who you are today. Don't ever let anyone change that.

Remember all the bonds that you've made through your school years, and never forget those who will always hold a very special place in your heart.

We want you to always reach for the stars, follow your dreams, and never settle for less.

Remember that you can be whatever you want to be. We believe in you, and have a lot of faith in you. So as our little girl graduates High School and goes onto college, just remember that if you ever need us, we'll always be there for you - no matter what. CONGRATULATIONS to the Class of 2009!
You will truly be missed!
Love,
Sra. Romero

Ryan, You are right I am going to miss you! You are such a hard-working and outgoing person. I will miss your humor and daily visits the most. Continue to always believe in yourself. P.S. Can I have a water bottle?

Amanda, You have always been there to help me out, even when you weren't asked. Your sincere and caring qualities will take you far in life. Never change who you are and always remember to smile!! Who's going to drive to South for me?

Kristen, Your commitment and dedication will take you far. Thank you for everything you have done, especially in the stressful times. Always remember it's ok to say no and always make time for yourself. Where did all the chocolate covered expresso beans go?

Heather, You are a phenomenal person. Your talents will take you far in life. Believe in who you are and always believe in yourself. Thank you for everything and I will need your creative ideas every Nov. Are you done with the mural yet?

Congratulations to the Class of 2009

We will miss you!

We know you are all going places, and we wish you the best of luck and happiness on this journey of life!

WLHS Mission Statement

Windsor Locks High School, in partnership with parents and the community, is a professional learning community where teachers, staff, and students value differences and demonstrate standards of academic, civic, and personal excellence that empower students to become productive citizens and lifelong learners in a global community.

Class of 2009, our time has come

*Lock in the past,
with the key to our future*

Graduation was always what we looked forward to, but always seemed so far away. The time is finally here to walk across the stage and receive that key to the future. It's in our hands now. The time has come to lock all the memories and good times together from the past, in our hearts. Remember the "locks" always.

We've made it through such a big part of our lives together. The past four years have helped us find ourselves, we've met and made unforgettable friends and shared so many memories. Together we've been known as a class with such integrity that has always accomplished so much. We've left a huge mark on WLHS that will always be remembered.

We may never all stand next to each other to fill those gym bleachers again, but we are bound to cross paths in our future. That person next to you could become a co-worker, even your doctor. As we say our good-byes and give our hugs, remember how close we've all become. We're all a part of a bond that can't and will never be broken or unlocked in any way. Graduation is not the end, but more the beginning. Let those keys in our hands help us unlock every door that comes our way. We're ready; we can and we will handle anything that comes our way.

Congratulations and Best of Luck
Class of 2009
